

2009 Council of the Federation Summer Meeting to be held in Saskatchewan

QUÉBEC CITY, July 18, 2008 – Premier Brad Wall announced today that Saskatchewan will host the 2009 annual summer meeting of the Council of the Federation.

Premier Wall extended an invitation to Premiers from all provinces and territories to meet in Regina from August 5 to 7, 2009 and experience Saskatchewan’s rich culture and world-renowned hospitality.

“Saskatchewan is an exciting place to be right now and we are looking forward to hosting the summer meeting of the Council of the Federation in our beautiful Queen City,” said Wall.

The Council of the Federation was created in December 2003 to promote interprovincial-territorial cooperation and closer ties between members, foster meaningful relations between governments based on respect for the Constitution and recognition of the diversity within the federation, and show leadership on issues important to all Canadians.
